Description.

This tour take us to the heart of the Peruvian culinary, The day begins with the transfer to the Market "San Camilo", one of the most important suppliers of products for our city, there we will recognize the variety of meats, vegetables, fruits, spices and other items of great importance in Peru, the purchase will be accompanied by our Chef who will explain everything we see during the tour and also give us his suggestions for the products that are used for the preparation of the dishes in this culinary adventure.

Once finished our shopping we go to our installations where we have a fully equipped kitchen, where before cooking, you will receive a lecture on Peruvian cuisine, where we give an overview of the origins of our food, its influences, products, typical dishes and emerging trends that mark our gastronomy, etc..

Each of you can prepare dishes flag of our country such as Ceviche, Causa Rellena, Lomo Saltado and Rocoto Relleno, all this accompanied by the inevitable Pisco Sour.
After a delicious lunch, transfer to your hotel.

Are you ready to know Peru on a different way?
